Treasury agents are after San Francisco photographers who are sweating silver coins. Sweating silver money is not as bad es sweating human beings, yet that is done in many San Francisco shops every day and the law does not raise its hand to help the poor girls in the "sweat shops,"

The Chicago man can be witty on occasion. One of them recently, in conversation with a New York critic, made the following hard thrust; "I suppose there is nothing that amuses you more than, for instance, a Chicago man's faith in Chicago. It is amusing, of course; almost as funny as a Now Yorker's pride in London; and really quite as commendable,"

The house committee on Pacific railroads has decided to reopen the funding proposition, and will probably offer a substitute for the bill recently killed.

A Missouri editor recently went into a store of a business man who did not advertise, and was surprised to find him always busy. The storekeeper had the itch and a Waterbury watch, and when he wasn't scratching himself he was winding the watch,-Ex.
